

The Periwinkle Foundation Privacy Policy

Our commitment to privacy:

The Periwinkle Foundation is committed to protecting the confidentiality of all information provided by its donors. Periwinkle will not share personal donor information with anyone outside Periwinkle. Specifically, Periwinkle will not sell, trade or share donors' personal or contact information with any outside person or organization, nor send any mailings on behalf of any other organization. Periwinkle periodically engages outside consultants to provide strategic and/or operational advice and expertise. All consultants are required to agree in writing to maintain the confidentiality of any personal donor information reviewed during the course of the consultancy and comply with this privacy policy.

Information Maintained by Periwinkle:

The information that Periwinkle maintains from its donors typically includes names, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses and donation amounts. This information is maintained in secure files and in a computer database which is protected by user identification and passwords. It is also protected against access from outside Periwinkle. Personal donor information is used to maintain a record of all donations to Periwinkle, to acknowledge any gifts made and to communicate with donors in the future.

Periwinkle occasionally recognizes contributions in print (i.e. annual report, newsletter). This is done to show gratitude for your generosity. If you do not want your name publicized in association with your contribution, please indicate that you wish your pledge/contribution to remain anonymous when making your pledge/contribution and/or contact Periwinkle offices.

Information obtained through the internet:

Periwinkle receives donations through the internet. Any information provided in connection with web-based donations is passed through "Secure Socket Layers", which encrypt the information that is transferred to Periwinkle. Credit/debit card numbers will only be used for the processing of payments to Periwinkle. If you make an online credit card donation, the credit card information will be used solely to conduct your donation transaction.

Requests to stop receiving communications from Periwinkle:

Our donors always have the option of not receiving communications from Periwinkle, either by mail, email or telephone. If you wish to stop receiving communications from The Periwinkle Foundation, please contact us and specify the types of communications you do not wish to receive either by emailing us a dsuggitt@periwinklefoundation.org , calling us at 713-807-0191 or writing to us at The Periwinkle Foundation, 3000 Richmond Ave., Suite 340, Houston, TX 77098. Anyone wishing to verify or update their personal information, please contact Periwinkle in the manner described above. Be sure to include your old and new information so that we can make the necessary changes.

Privacy Policy Updates:

This policy may be revised in the future. Please check periodically to view any future changes.
